Just Centro's Opinion...

A well-presented five bedroom terraced home set along a quiet road in Sutton walking distance to the High Street.

Set over three floors this lovely home offers you space and style throughout, as you enter the property you have a reception room which has been converted in to a double bedroom with ensuite-shower room, you then have an open plan lounge with modern fully fitted kitchen which opens on to a decked and grassed garden, a small utility room which also has a W.C and great storage space underneath the stairs.

On the first floor you have a very spacious family bathroom, a huge double bedroom and another large double bedroom.

On the top floor you then have a large double bedroom with eave storage, a smaller double bedroom and a separate shower room.

Located along Burgess Road you are walking distance to local shops and a variety of transport links.

Offered part furnished and available to view now.
